—Don't fail to get out and vote next Tuesday.

—Tuesday, November 6th, is the day; don't forget it.

—Mrs. Sallie Trushel of Warren is visiting friends here.

—Paste this in your hat. Novem- ber 6th is election day.

—There should be no stay at home Republicans, this year.

—Mrs. P. Normile and daughter Mable are visiting friends in town.

—Squire S. J. Setley has moved into his new home on North Elm Street.

—A. D. Neill one of Marienville's most substantial business men was in town Monday.

—Miss Lottie Young and Mr. Pow- ell from Titusville, visited Miss Effie Clark over Sunday.

—John Glensing and Cal Confor were down from Marienville this week, on township business.

—Conductor Bob Fulton was up from Oil City for a day's hunt, Satur- day, and secured a good bag.

—John Carr and wife of Lottsville, Pa., are visitors at the home of Mrs. Carr's brother, F. R. Lanson.

—Editor Reed of the Clarion Dem- ocrat, and wife were visitors at the home of Mrs. Reed's brother, Rev. W. W. Dale, over Sunday.

—Mrs. Keniston has broken ground for a new house in the north ward. This will make the sixth new dwelling built this summer.

—The Tionesta, Nebraska and Stewart Run school reports are omitted this week for lack of space. They will appear in our next issue.

—Judges Noyes and White were in town Friday last holding adjourn- ed court. Several cases were argued but no decisions handed down.

—Messrs. Watson & Victory Smith with their families of New York, are visiting at the home of their sister, Mrs. John A. Dawson, Stewart's Run.

—The Christian Endeavor society will give a dime social on Wednesday evening, (Halloween) at the home of Miss Effie Clark. All are cordially invited.

—Miss Grove and Miss Hess, of Tionesta, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hart, of East Second street, for a few days, will re- turn to-day.—Derick.

—Sam Farmer brought a honey- suckle stock filled with fragrant blossoms into the REPUBLICAN office Mon- day; he found it in the woods near Trunkeyville, where they are blossom- ing profusely; an unusual occurrence, so late in the season.

—Dr. J. T. Rothrock the eminent State botanist and Forestry Com- missioner from Philadelphia was in town last week. The doctor is looking over the ground of his next season's work which will be confined to north- western Pennsylvania.

—The annual inspection of the Woman's Relief Corps will be held on Wednesday, November 7th, at 1:30 p. m. All members are earnestly requested to be present. By order of the President, Bessie E. Morgan.

MARY T. IRWIN, Sec'y.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunter and young son, returned a few days ago from a visit with friends in Bos- ton. Mrs. Hunter has been gone about a month and Charlie went down to escort her home, taking the occasion to put in about a week sight- seeing in the "Hub."

—The assortment in the clothing line at Barnett's is still very good as to sizes and styles, come early, as they are going fast at the prices asked for them.

—Miss Lizzie Morgan at the home of her father Joseph M. Morgan, and Miss Lizzie Wuergo who is at Charles Russell's, are ill with ty- phoid fever, contracted while picking grapes in the Brockton grape region. The young ladies have been sick about two weeks and are reported by physicians in charge as getting along very nicely.

—The pupils of the public schools in Titusville have formed an Anti-Cigarette League. A full corps of officers has been elected and a con- stitution adopted. It has succeeded in interesting a great number of young boys and others in its crusade against the use of cigarettes. The example might be followed with profit by the public schools of Tionesta.

—Two marriage ceremonies were performed by Squire S. J. Setley last week; the first being that of Mr. R. C. Heath of Starr, Pa., and Miss Katie Mattes of Marion, Kansas, and the second of Mr. Frank Rudolph of Newtown and Miss Katie Glassner of Tionesta township. The young gentlemen are well known and popular residents of Kingsley township and the REPUBLICAN joins their many friends in wishing them a long and happy married life.

—To-night is All Hallows' and it behooves the careful citizen to get his turnips, cabbages and other gar- den bric-a-brac stowed away before dark if he desires to know where it is to-morrow morning. The occasion, as a rule has not been badly abused by its observers in Tionesta and it is to be hoped that to-night will not be an exception. Fun is fun, but des- truction to property and disreputable conduct is not sport, and those who indulge in this form of amusement should not forget that they are liable to prosecution for malicious mischief.

—Jared Huling has a copy of The Christian Banner, a paper published at Fredricksburg, Va., June 7, 1862. It is quite a curiosity and shows to what extremities the people were re- duced even so early as 1862, as a piece of the commonest kind of brown wrapping paper was used to receive the impression of the type. In one place the publisher says: "If by the help of God and our fellow citizens we can secure paper and ink, we shall write many things which we trust will be of service to the people." We hope he did for it was a Union paper and the publisher was evident- ly full of "sand." Jared has had the paper for 32 years and values it high- ly.

—Mr. Wm. Dickrager and Miss Anna Lohmeyer, two of German Hill's most popular young people were married at the Lutheran par- sonage in Oil City at 2 o'clock on last Thursday afternoon. Rev. H. J. Reinman pastor of the church of- ficiated. Mr. Dickrager has recently completed a very pretty new house on his farm, which was ready for occu- pancy upon the return from their wed- ding trip. A reception was given to the newly married couple last week at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Lohmeyer, where many friends were present to wish them joy in their new relation. The REPUBLICAN extends congratulations, with the hope that their lives may be full of sunshine.

—The death of Daniel Harrington, which occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mary Spear, at Evans City, Butler county, at 1 o'clock, Monday, October 22d., removes one of the sturdy pioneer characters of this county. Mr. Harrington was born in Whitefield, Ct., in 1807 and came to Ross Run, this county, when about 25 years of age. We have been unable to get much concerning his life, for while he wrote much of others he devoted but little space to himself. Some time prior to his death he wrote an auto-biography, from which an article for publication, will be gleaned. The remains were laid to rest last Thursday afternoon, by the side of his wife in the Zuendel church yard on German Hill.

—Mrs. J. L. Craig received a mes- sage Sunday afternoon conveying the sad news of the death of her father, Mr. J. G. Beaver, which occurred that day in the city of Boston. Mr. Beaver was in Boston visiting his son L. Herman Beaver when he was af- flicted with pneumonia. He was sick but a short time; Mrs. Craig not even knowing of his illness until get- ting word that he was dead. He was about 78 years of age and was well known to many of our citizens who will be pained to hear of his death. He is survived by his wife and six children, all grown up. The remains were shipped to Pittsburg, the former home of the deceased for burial. Mrs. Craig and son Will departed for that city Monday noon to attend the fu- neral.

—The 85th birthday of our vener- able townsman, Wm. Hildans, Esq., occurred on Wednesday last, Oct. 17. Mr. Hildans has recovered to a con- siderable extent from the illness which prostrated him early in the summer, and is able to make the foot- journey up town every day.—Frank- lin News

—The Supreme Court on Monday affirmed the decision of the Forest county court, in the matter of Dr. J. E. Beck's appeal from the granting of a retail liquor license to Powers & Branch of Marienville. The court, through Justice Green, says: "A ma- jority of the judges of the court be- low granted the license in question, and their action must be considered as the action of the court. The fact that the presiding judge dissented does not affect the validity of their action in its binding effect. We can- not go into the merits of the case; all we can do is to see that the license court has proceeded according to law. This appeal brings up nothing but the record." The court decides that where a bond in a license case is un- sufficient a new one may be filed.

Report of Christian Endeavor Con- vention at York, Pa.

Rev. J. V. McAninch, delegate to the State Convention of Christian Endeavor society, which was held at York, Pa., on the 17th inst., returned last week. Mr. McAninch gave a very full account of the convention proceedings to his congregation on Sabbath evening, the following being a brief synopsis of the report:—

There were present at the Con- vention more than 4,000 delegates, all of whom were there to do, and receive the most good possible. All things conspired to make the convention the most successful ever held in the state; the perfect arrangements of the hall, the entertainment, the music, the speakers, and the hearty reception and welcome by the people of York made the delegates feel they were indeed welcome.

The report of state secretary Mc- Donald shows that during the past year Pennsylvania has done a good work. There are altogether 3,159 so- cieties in the state, including 2 Mother's, 1 Senior, 2,544 Young Peo- ple's and 612 Junior, with a total membership of 132,382 of which 24,715 are Juniors. Pennsylvania car- ried off two of the banners at Cleve- land at the International convention for the largest gain in number of so- cieties in any state or province, the net gain being 914. The large hall which seated from 6,000 to 7,000 was filled to its utmost; at times there being held two overflow meetings. The sunrise prayer meetings were well attended and were of much spiritual profit. Noonday evangelistic services were held by the delegates at the various mills and factories at which much good was done. At a special service of this kind, held the last night of the convention, the presence and power of the Holy Spirit was wonderfully manifest, their being about 80 persons who signified their desire to live a christian life.

While the Endeavor is conserva- tive it is also aggressive. The prin- ciples of the society, which are found in the pledge are,—"Trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ for strength, I promise Him that I will not sit idly in idleness or seek my own ease and comfort and pleasure—but work—cultivate personal piety, become a useful member of the church and help to bring others to Christ."

The Endeavor believes in getting hold of true principles and pushing them along every line of human life. It seeks to make better men and women, lift up the fallen, strengthen the weak and point the lost to the Red- deemer, and in the name and with the blessing of God become the friend of mankind in church state and so- ciety.

The three enlargements of the En- deavor may be termed,—Interdenom- inational fellowship, missionary ex- tension and good citizenship.

An epitome of many of these speeches was given, and brief ex- tracts read. The influence of the Endeavor, numbering more than 2,000,000 and the power it was able to exert was dwelt upon. The mem- bers were urged to use this power in every way to benefit mankind, espe- cially in sending the gospel to those who do not have it, in fighting the saloon, man's greatest enemy, and to secure purity of government.

The subject of patriotism was largely discussed. The object is not to bring politics into the Endeavor, but to bring a little more endeavor into politics.

One speaker, a minister, said he always read the Declaration of Inde- pendence on the Sabbath nearest the 22nd of Feb'y and Fourth of July, as a part of the regular church ser- vice.

Another speaker thought but lit- tle need be said on Interdenomina- tional fellowship, for through the agency of this great international En- deavor it has become so easy for our Calvinistic brother to recognize a friend and co-laborer in his Armenian brother, and for our immersed brethren to say pleasant things of his sprinkled brother.

The convention adjourned with the usual consecration service, and a phonographic address by Dr. Clark who is now in Europe on account of ill health.

Stewart's Run.

Mrs. Charlie Perry of Warren; is visit- ing her sister, Mrs. J. A. Dawson.

A little girl arrived at the domicile of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Thomson, last Sab- bath.

Rufus Copeland is laying the founda- tion for his barn.

Charlie Maul of Siverlyville, was out last week hunting squirrels.

County Treasurer G. Jamieson was out to Stewart's Run Sabbath, visiting friends James McIntyre and wife visited friends in Oil City recently.

Miss Rose Connelly and Miss Brant of Freewburg are visiting friends here and at the Fugle farm between Pleasantville and Nollburg.

Mr. J. L. Range is repairing his barn on the Abbott farm.

There will be a donation party at Rev. William's Wednesday afternoon and evening.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary So- ciety of the F. M. church will hold their monthly meeting Friday evening of this week, at the White church. Every one is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thomson visited friends in Tionesta last Sabbath.

J. G. Bromley was in Tionesta 3 days last week working on the new barn on the F. M. parsonage lot.

Mrs. Bryn of Goodwill Hill, is the guest of Len Range to-day, (Tuesday).

Mrs. J. A. Dawson's brother, Mr. Smith of Brown Hill Crawford county, visited Mrs. Dawson last week.

Mrs. McCullough and Mrs. Ferry re- turned to Warren this morning.

Mrs. Cummings has a pear tree in blossom.

Kellettville.

As we have been absent for the past three weeks we will try to write a few lines again. A daughter was born at the home of L. A. Barber last week. The Dr. is feeling very proud over the new comer.

Mr. John Day was in town over Sun- day. We are glad to see your smiling face around us.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruner of West Hickory drove through town Sunday.

Mr. Robert Burdick of Spartensburg has moved his family to Mayburg where he expects to work this winter.

W. A. Kribbs takes the lead through this part of the country in farming, as he finished digging his potatoes last week and measuring them up, found he had three hundred bushel, that being very good for this season. It will be no trouble to find a market for them as the potato crop was very poor this year.

We would judge from the looks that Wm. Tobey believes in free wool. He has purchased a large flock of sheep and keeps them on his farm, something he was never known to take any stock in before.

Well No. 72 on the Cook lease will be finished this week. A 60 bbl. well is expected.

Notice to Prohibitionists.

Owing to a mistake our nomina- tion papers were not filed at Harris- burg in time to get the names of our candidate for Associate Judge on the official ballot, but our candidate for Associate Judge, C. A. Hill, of Tione- sta Boro., is still in the field, and we will have to resort to stickers on election day.

H. H. SHOEMAKER, Chairman.

S. J. SETLEY, Sec'y.

Proclamation of General Election.

Whereas, in and by an act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Penn- sylvania, entitled "An Act to regulate the nomination and election of public officers, requiring certain expenses incident there- to to be paid by the several counties and punishing certain offenses in regard to such elections," approved the 10th day of June, A. D., 1893, it is made the duty of the Sheriff of every county within this Commonwealth to give public notice of the General Elections, and in such to—

1. Enumerate the officers to be elected and give a list of all the nominations made as provided in this act, and to be voted for in such county as far as may be in the form in which they shall appear upon the ballots, and the full text of all constitutional amendments submitted to a vote of the people, and the proclamations posted in each election district need not contain the names of any candidates but those to be voted for in such district.

2. Designate the place at which the election is to be held.

3. He shall give notice that every person, excepting Justices of the Peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States, or of this State, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a sub- ordinate officer or agent who is or shall be employed under the legislative, execu- tive or judiciary departments of this State, or of the United States, or of any city, or incorporated district, and also that every member of Congress and of the State Leg- islature, and of the select or common coun- cil of any city, or commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of judge, inspec- tor or clerk of any election of this Com- monwealth, and that no inspector, judge or other officer of any such election shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for, except that of an election officer.

1. JOHN T. CARSON, High Sheriff of the County of Forest, that a General Election will be held in said Coun- ty, on Tuesday, November 6th, 1894.
